

Stuart Johnson. Stu Johnson graduated from Saint Peter High School in 1957. After high school and college, Stu dedicated his professional life to developing scholarship programs for young people, most notably through his work and dedication to Citizen Scholarship Foundation of America (now known as Scholarship America). As the founder of the Dollars for Scholars program, Stu was instrumental in the 1984 re-location of CSFA from New England to Saint Peter. Stu retired as the vice-president of the largest scholarship service organization in 2001.
