

Richard Stippel is a graduate of the Class of 1960. Founder and President of Exciton, a company that specializes in the manufacture and sales of high purity dyes for a diverse market. The uses for Mr. Stippel's dyes are many, including: micro-electronics, photolithography and DVD's, and for flat panel televisions.