

Z. Samuel Gault was a graduate of the Class of 1948. He worked as a bank janitor during his high school years and started as a cashier in 1954 after returning from the Korean War. He became a bank president in 1956 at age 25 and watched banking evolve from the mechanical adding machine era all the way through the Internet. In 2002, Mr. Gault was named a Pioneer Banker for his 50 years of service to the banking industry in Minnesota.
