

Jack Dranttel. Jack is a 1959 graduate of Saint Peter High School and received a Congressional appointment to the United States Naval Academy after graduation. Jack graduated from the Academy in 1963 and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the United States Air Force. After earning his law degree, he served 25 years in the USAF with Judge Advocate (JAG) assignments throughout the world. Upon graduating from the War College, Jack was assigned to the Pentagon as the executive of the USAF JAG Department responsible for the worldwide assignment of 1200 JAGs. After retiring from the Air Force, Jack returned to Washington D.C. to serve as the Special Investigative Counsel by the Chair of the House Armed Services Committee.