

Lester Hillger (Staff) -- Lester, who passed away in 1970, wore many hats during his time at Saint Peter Public Schools. He was a well-respected and well-liked educator who worked for the school district from 1948 to 1970 as a science teacher, coach, athletic director, and junior high principal. In addition, he also helped organize and run the City of St. Peter's summer recreation program for many years during his tenure. A native of Morgan, Minn., Lester was a veteran of World War II, serving with Naval Intelligence in North Africa. He eventually earned his teaching degree from Mankato State College and a master's degree from Macalester College in St. Paul.